

Is it a JOB or Is it a MINISTRY?

Some people have a job in the church.. Others involve themselves in a ministry.

What's the difference?

If you are doing it just because no one else will...it's a job.

If you are doing it to serve the Lord...it's a ministry. If you quit because someone criticized you...It's a job.

What's the difference?

If you are serving...Then it is ministry.

If you'll do it only so long as it does not interfere with other activities, chances are it's a job. If you are committed to staying with it even if it means letting go of other things...it's got to be ministry.

So really, what is the difference? If your reward is from people...it's a job.

If your reward is in heaven...it's a ministry.

If you quit because no one thanked you or praised you...it is a job.

If you stay with it when nobody recognized your efforts...it is a ministry.

What is the difference?

If you do it for the praise of men...it's a job

It's almost impossible not to be excited about a ministry.

What's really the difference?

If you're a servant, it's ministry. If your concern is success-JOB

If your concern is faithfulness-MINISTRY...If someone had to convince you-JOB.

If you have a job and give it up to find a ministry. If GOD has called you-MINISTRY so don't treat it like a job! The Lord wants you to be excited while you are faithful in Ministry. What's the difference? Churches are filled with people doing jobs

Great and growing Churches are filled with people involved in MINISTRY!!!
